About the clinicians:

Karyn Rainey attended Meredith Manor, a horsemanship trade school in West Virginia, owned by Kay Meredith, a member of the 1980 Olympic team for dressage. While at Meredith Manor she was Kay Meredith's groom. Kay placed her with Olympic Team member and now "O" Dressage judge Linda Zang in Davidsonville, Maryland. Linda judged Dressage at the Atlanta Games. She worked with Event Team member Denny Emerson as well. Karen is also a "I" judge in dressage!

Jennifer Kraus has a well rounded background in hunters, equitation, eventing and pleasure. Her philosophy is the rider must have a proper balanced position in order for the horse to achieve its maximum potential. She has successfully shown numerous OTTBs up to the AAA level. Jennifer has trained under Lyndi Prettyman "R" hunter and jumper judge, Carolyn Krome, Sally Cousins and Claudia Kleinsmith. She has her bachelors in psychology from UMBC and is a certified life coach. This training allows her to be an exceptional coach, helping riders overcome their fears and shine in the horse show ring.
